

E. Tom Bettin

My current work is focused on nature's abundant beauty through line, color, rhythm, and shapes, which I express freely using the monotype format. In both environments, the river and my studio, I constantly feel the strong pull of aesthetics which have become innate motivators for my new work. I appreciate this environmental show and its reflection of artists who care about our lands and rivers when they are consistently under attack.

